

The McCabe Educational Trust DIARY OF THE YEAR 2005

FEBRUARY

We are grateful to all the supporters of McCabe who helped us distribute £30,000 to very worthwhile ventures in the last year.

A special Thank-You to McCabe pilgrims who have helped us raise £950 during the month of February

With your help, we will continue helping those in need we encounter on our travels.

JEEL AL AMAL BOYS HOME is the central focus of our fundraising this year. You can read all about this wonderful work on our website www.mccabe-travel.co.uk

CHILD SPONSORSHIP

Jeel is encouraging pilgrims to visit during their time in Jerusalem. The Revd Heather Penman has pledged to give regular support for one of the boys. She is sending £20 a month to The McCabe Educational Trust by standing order specifically to help RAMI ODEH through a challenging period of his life. We are forwarding this payment in full to Jeel Al Amal with no deductions for administration. In addition, Heather has signed a GIFTAID declaration meaning that we can reclaim tax on her donation to forward to Jeel as a bonus.

This is a practical example of how the McCabe Educational Trust acts as a channel for practical help to reach the recipient quickly with minimum fuss.

JANUARY VISIT

In January representatives of 50 churches visited Jeel Al Amal as part of a McCabe Clergy Training Course. Many will bring parish parties to the Holy Land with a visit to Jeel featuring as a highlight of their itinerary. Alice and her daughter Samar gave a warm welcome and commented on how good it was to be receiving McCabe pilgrims once again. While visiting, the groups took time to visit "Charlie's Bakery" – this is run by Jeel and is staffed by former Jeel boys. The bakery is successfully supplying bread and cakes to the local community and in the process raising much-needed funds for the school.
