

The McCabe Educational Trust DIARY OF THE YEAR 2005

JUNE

We are grateful to all the supporters of McCabe who helped us distribute £30,000 to very worthwhile ventures in the last year.

A special Thank You to McCabe pilgrims who helped us raise £206.05 during June and £23,771.32 so far this year with your help, we will continue helping those in need we encounter on our travels.

During June McCabe Pilgrimages conducted a series of Leaders preparation trips to the Holy Land. As well as seeing the places and preparing for the practicalities of leading a pilgrimage, leaders visited projects supported by the McCabe Educational Trust. These visits are an integral part of McCabe pilgrimage programmes and lead to many lasting partnerships which are invaluable as the projects we support receive little state aid. The Trust took the opportunity to deliver in person recently received donations.

£4,000 to Jeel Al Amal Boys Home our featured charity this year. This includes a specific donation towards a summer holiday for the boys by the Sea of Galilee and our commitment to the education of one of the boys, Sami Odeh.

£1,500 to the Al Shurooq Blind School in Bethlehem. Helen Shehadeh, the Director, is a long standing member of St. Andrew's Church of Scotland in Jerusalem and we are proud to be associated with her wonderful work in what are very trying circumstances.

£500 to the Sunshine School in Jerusalem. We continue to support Marion Jadon as she seeks to build bridges between communities in the Christian atmosphere of her nursery.

£605 to the Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society hospital in Nazareth which was our featured project last year and is still very much in our thoughts.
