

The McCabe Educational Trust

Christmas Edition 07

A special Thank You to McCabe pilgrims who helped us raise £29,237 during November, and a total of £134,524 so far this year.

As Christmas approaches our thoughts are with friends in Bethlehem, especially Helen and the children at the Al Shurooq School for the Blind and her brother Edmund and his staff at the Bethlehem Arab Society for Rehabilitation. Last month was a record breaking month for the Trust and your donations are making a real difference to the lives of our friends in Bethlehem.

But you, Bethlehem of Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel. Micah 5:2

Be inspired!

We are so grateful to McCabe travellers who have responded magnificently to the needs put before them this year. From small beginnings, the Trust is now making a significant difference to the lives of children in Bethany, Bethlehem and India.

Al Shurooq School for the Blind

A good picture equals a thousand words!

Our Trust Secretary, Canon Iain Paton, hands over a cheque for £20,000 to Helen Shehadeh. This magnificent sum will pay for the furnishing of all of the dormitories in the school's new residential building.

Dear friends

I enclose a photograph of me taken handing over the money to the Deputy Director at the Bethlehem Arab Rehabilitation Centre. Revd Jack Lamb is also in the picture. As you know I organised a Coffee Morning back in October and raised £160 which I am told will be put towards the work in the Children's Unit. On a personal note I thoroughly enjoyed my trip to the Holy Land.

Yours Sincerely
Miss Elizabeth Lang
