Bringing hope to the children of the Holy Land

McCabe Educational Trust

Today there are less than 200,000 Christians living in the Holy Land. The mission of MET is to encourage them to stay. We do this by raising funds to support the wonderful work being done by this community, which is amazing considering its small size.

We focus on two partner projects based in Bethany and Bethlehem. These are run by Christian entrepreneurs, but the staff and the people they help come from all religions and none. Christianity in action that we are proud to support.

75% of available funds are allocated to the Jeel al Amal Boys Home in Bethany and the Al Shurooq School for the visually challenged in Bethlehem. We have been faithfully sending these two institutions a quarterly grant for more than 20 years. 25% is distributed in smaller grants, including to the Princess Basma Centre in Jerusalem and the Bethlehem Rehabilitation Centre. At Christmas we co-operate with Bethlehem Bible College to distribute a Christmas gift to needy families.

Further afield, we have partnerships with the Jordan Deaf school and schools in India and Nepal.

We value your support

MET is now more than 30 years old and to date we have given over £4.5 million in grants. Our current aim to distribute a minimum of £180,000 annually.

To donate online, visit the MET section of the McCabe website or send a cheque payable to The McCabe Educational Trust to the address below.

Please consider a Standing Order or a donation in memory. Remembering MET in your Will would be a life-changing gesture.

MET PARTNER PROJECTS

Jeel al Amal Boys Home in Bethany

is an inspirational refuge in a sea of despair. Founded by Samar Sahhar in 1972 and now under daughter Najwa's direction, we have seen the project grow and standards excel. Najwa is a forward thinker and when a need has been presented, the means have been forthcoming. The Boys Home currently accommodates 50 boys and 300 children attend the co-ed school. MET is the only regular funder. Last year we gave Jeel £85,000 including £20,000 for the installation of a water cistern. Water is now constant rather than the previous two hours weekly supply.

The Jerusalem Princess Basma Centre

on the Mount of Olives is part of the ministry of St George's Anglican Cathedral. The vision is for all Palestinian children with disabilities to have access to quality health services and inclusive education, giving the opportunity to be active members of society. Outreach teams work on the ground throughout the Palestinian territories including Gaza.

The Bethlehem Rehabilitation Centre

is a Christian beacon enhancing the lives of the physically and mentally disabled. Their main aim is to re-integrate disabled people back in to society and help them achieve a degree of independence. With the Gaza war, their services are much needed.

Al Shurooq school for the visually disabled in Bethlehem was founded By Helen Shehadeh, herself blind, with the aim of enabling visually disabled people in Palestine to become self sufficient and productive members of society.

Hanan, the current head teacher speaks passionately about how they are working towards including as many children as possible in mainstream education. Currently there are 34 pupils with a focus on working with children with multiple disabilities, as there is no provision for them elsewhere. Staff, who are both Christian and Muslim, emphasize their shared human values, particularly respecting the rights of others.

MET is Al Shurooq's only regular funder, with other sources of income having dried up as a result of Bethlehem and the West Bank's increasing isolation.

Jeel al Amal, Princess Basma, the Rehabilitation Centre and Al Shurooq are Christian run organisations with great leadership employing and supporting needy people of all religions and none. Christianity in action that we are proud to support.
